SOME RECENT JOAN OF ARC MEDALS

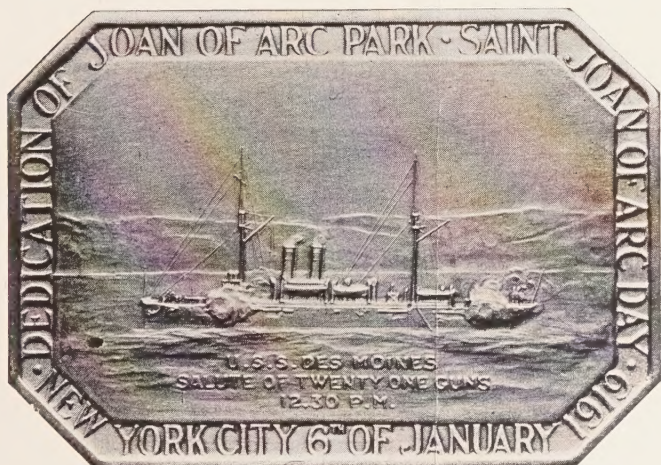

THE round medal, designed by Anna V. Hyatt, is issued by the American Numismatic Society. On one side the half-length figure of Joan in armour with up-lifted sword. The inscription in Gothic lettering reads names of the ships appear on the medal, with the title: "Searchlight Salute, 8:15 to 8:40 P. M." The skyline of the city at that point appears in perspective, with the outline of the Joan of Arc Park. The obverse bears the inscription: "Dedication of the Joan of Arc Park. Saint Joan of Arc Day, New York City, 6th January, 1919."

A third medal was struck by the Joan of Arc Statue Committee for presentation to Mr. J. Sanford Saltus as a slight recognition of the great services that he rendered the committee.

"Homage to the Maid of France." The reverse shows the banner of Joan of Arc, while other pennants in perspective convey a suggestion of the ceremonies of the dedication. It bears the inscription, "Joan of Arc Park, Dedicated January 6, 1919."

The octagonal medal is issued by the Joan of
